Pioneer of the Year

At an evening “Musical Tribute”, Hedy Klause was awarded Pioneer of the Year by Museum President Sylvia Larson. Guest speaker Janet Scott-Hoytt reviewed Hedy’s illustrious piano teaching career and the many projects she had pioneered.

The large crowd enjoyed the classical guitarist Lyndon Olson, and violinist Lizzie Hoytt, along with congratulatory remarks from Alderman Bill Elliot.

Pioneer Days Parade

Waving from a convertible driven by her son, Hedy Klause was applauded by the welcoming crowd along the parade route.

This is the Museum’s 10th year of sponsoring the Pioneer of the Year award, one of the highlights of the City’s Pioneer Days.

Canada Day Celebration

Visitors of all ages enjoyed the Canada Day celebration at the Museum. The event, which began at 1:00 p.m. saw over 200 people come through the doors in the course of the afternoon, filling the museum on all levels. The Children’s Legacy Centre attracted the young and the old.

Many guests tried a Lucky Spin on the Wheel. Board members, volunteers, and staff Gill and Gloria were kept busy throughout the event.

The raffle gift basket was won by Gwen Bronzy. First Place winner of Adult Trivia – Selma Stobbe; Teen Trivia – Lucas Cunningham; Child’s Trivia – Emily Ouellette. The “Canada Flag Hunt”, an annual favourite, was won by Jacob Cunningham.

Children enjoyed the crafts and the “Jelly Bean Count”, won by Amy Boisvert. They received A & W and McDonald’s coupons for the “Ball Toss Game”.

Thanks to businesses who donated generously to the celebration: Shoe Factory, Pioneer Chrysler, Value Drug Mart, Jonathan’s, Carpet Centre, Just Right, Angelo’s Pizza, Centaur Dining Lounge, Sobey’s, McDonald’s, Walmart and Nutter’s.

The afternoon was rounded out with refreshments being served, including the Canada Day Cake, supplied by Sobey’s and Orange Drink supplied by McDonald’s.

Goodbye to Viki

In June, we said Goodbye to Viki Ruben, with great regret. Viki has gone on to more exotic things, with a move to Costa Rica, where she will vacation a while, before teaching English to adults.
